MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE.

Senate Chamber,

Austin, Texas, January 20, 1931. Hon. Fred H. Minor, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

Sir: I am directed by the Senate to inform the House that the Senate has passed the following:

S. B. No. 1, A bill to be entitled "An Act to repeal Chapter 81 of the General Laws of the State of Texas, and declaring an emergency."

S. C. R. No. 2, Relating to the amendment of the Rules of the Senate.

S. C. R. No. 8, Commendatory of Brigadier General R. L. Robertson, Adjutant of Texas.

S. C. R. No. 6, With reference to expenses of inauguration ceremonies.

Respectfully,

JOHN B. DuPRIEST, Assistant Secretary of the Senate.

TENDERING THANKS TO BRIGA-DIER GENERAL ROBERT LAMAR ROBERTSON.

The Speaker laid before the House, for consideration at this time, the following resolution:

S. C. R. No. 8, Extending thanks to Brigadier General Robert Lamar Robertson.

Whereas, Brigadier General Robert Lamar Robertson is soon to retire to private life after four years of efficient and illustrious service as Adjutant General of the State of Texas; and

Whereas, General Robertson has effectively and without seeking publicity maintained and increased the prestige of the Ranger Force and the Texas National Guard during his administration; and

Whereas, It is fitting that such a high record be made permanent in this body in appreciation of service honorably discharged and as an example to all in service of the State, which record is as follows:

"General Robertson is a native Texan. He was born in Gonzales county of Southern parentage. He is a graduate of the public schools of Texas and of Texas A. & M. College. After graduation he entered business in Gonzales with his father, where he remained until he entered the service of his country.

"Immediately after the declaration of war he entered the First Officers' Training Camp at Leon Springs, Texas, May, 1917. He served with distinction overseas as captain of infantry, Thirty-sixth Division. He led his company in action in the Meuse-Argonne offensive, Champagne front.

"With the reorganization of the Thirty-sixth Division, Texas National Guard, after the World War, Robert Lamar Robertson was made major of infantry, Texas National Guard, and assigned to duty as battalion commander, 141st Infantry Regiment.

"When the Hon. Dan Moody was inaugurated as Governor, January, 1927, the office of Adjutant General of Texas and Brigadier General, Texas National Guard, was tendered Major Robertson without his solicitation.

"Numerous accomplishments fill the administration of General Robertson. Every effort was put forth to build up and increase the value of the justly famed Texas Rangers. At the General's request the Forty-first Legislature increased their pay. Care was exercised in all uses of the Rangers, and no criticism has been made of improper exercise of that authority in general cases or under martial law. General Robertson exhibited rare tact and consideration in all martial law reigns, with National Guard troops as well. Order restored with as little interference with the citizenship as possible.

"After General Robertson assumed the duties of his office the Federal property accountability records of the Guard were found to be in a chaotic condition. It was by a general physical inventory of the property in the hands of all units of the Texas National Guard that very few of the records of these organizations agreed with those in the office of the United States property and disbursing officer. As a result of his efforts in this direction, Texas has given a full property clearance by the War Department for the first time since the World War, amounting to a total of $142,-319.93.

"During the last Federal army inspection of the National Guard, not a single one of the 163 units was rated 'unsatisfactory,' and 144 of them, or 88.3 per cent, received ratings of 'very satisfactory,' the highest possible rating." Therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of Texas, the House of Representatives concurring, That General Robert Lamar Robertson is tendered the thanks of the State of Texas for the high type of service rendered his State and Nation through the efficient administration of the affairs of the Ranger Force and the Texas National Guard during his tenure of office; be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution, signed by the President and Secretary of the Senate and the Speaker and Chief Clerk of the House, with the seal of the State of Texas thereon, be mailed General Robertson.

The resolution was read second time and was adopted.

RELATIVE TO HOUSE RULES.

The Speaker laid before the House, for consideration at this time, the following resolution:

S. C. R. No. 2, Relative to order of procedure.

Whereas, At the general election on November 4, 1930, Section 5, of Article III, of the Constitution of Texas, was amended so as to hereafter read as follows, towit:

"The Legislature shall meet every two years at such time as may be provided by law and at other times when convened by the Governor. When convened in Regular Session, the first thirty days thereof shall be devoted to the introduction of bills and resolutions, acting upon emergency appropriations, passing upon the confirmation of the recess ap-pointees of the Governor and such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor in special messages to the Legislature; provided, that during the succeeding thirty days of the Regular Session of the Legislature the various committees of each house shall hold hearings to consider all bills and resolutions and other matters then pending; and such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor; provided further, that during the following sixty days the Legislature shall act upon such bills and resolutions as may be then pending and upon such emergency matters as may be submitted by the Governor in special messages to the Legislature; provided, however, either house may otherwise determine its order of business by an affirmative vote of fourfifths of its membership."

Whereas, Under said amendment it is specifically provided that either house may determine its order of business by an affirmative vote of fourfifths of its membership; therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of its membership, the House of Representatives concurring by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of its membership, That the order of business is hereby determined to be governed by the general rules of the respective houses, except in so far as they do not conflict with the following special rules, which are hereby adopted.

Rule I.

sixty days of the session and have the same referred to a proper committee.

Rule II.

After the first sixty days of the Regular Session no bills shall be introduced except local bills as hereinafter defined emergency appropriations, acting upon appointees of the Governor (whether recess appointments or otherwise) and all emergency matters submitted by the Governor in special messages to the Legislature, unless otherwise directed by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of the membership of the house in which the bill is first introduced.

Rule III.

Local bills may be introduced at any time and considered at any time by the committee to which they have been referred and reported by said committee and considered and disposed of by the house in which said bill is pending in the due order of business as determined by the general rules of the house in which the bill is pending. A local bill is defined by the purposes of this rule as an act the provisions of which relate to or affect directly a defined locality, district or section of the State but which does not affect directly the State at large, and the operations of which is confined to a particular locality, district or section of the State.

Rule IV.

Local bills, emergency appropriations acting upon the appointees of the Governor (whether recess appointments or otherwise) and all emergency matters submitted by the Governor in special messages to the Legislature may be considered and disposed of at any time by either house under the general rules and order of business.

Rule V.

During the first sixty days of the Regular Session, under the general rules of either house and in the due order of business, either house may take up, consider and dispose of any bill not of the nature named in the foregoing Rule IV by an affirmative vote of four-fifths of the membership.

Rule VI.

It shall be in order for committees It shall be in order to introduce to consider bills at any time during bills or resolutions during the first the session, their reports and the consideration by either house being governed, however, in accordance with the rules of the house in which said bill is pending.

When any bill shall have been finally acted upon by either branch of the Legislature, and shall have been transmitted to the other, said bill shall be by the presiding officer thereof referred to an appropriate committee, and it shall not be necessary to be voted upon as a prerequisite to its consideration by the receiving branch.

Rule VII.

In reckoning the time within which a bill has been introduced, the date of its first introduction in either house shall govern.

The resolution was read second time and referred by the Speaker to Committee on Rules.

MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Speaker laid before the House and had read the following message from the Governor:

Executive Office, January 19, 1931.

To the Forty-second Legislature:

Your attention is directed to the fact that recently Honorable L. J. Brucks, Judge of the Thirty-eighth Judicial District, was indicted by a grand jury, organized and impanelled in the District Court for the Thirty-eighth Judicial District, on a charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, a violation of the penal laws of this State.

The indictment in this case was quashed and the issues of fact were not submitted to a jury. Subsequently he was tried and convicted in a justice of the peace court of Bandera county on a charge of drunkenness and has appealed from this conviction.

In the belief that it is necessary in the maintenance of the dignity of the judiciary of this State, these facts are called to your attention to the end that you may investigate them and determine, after according Judge Brucks a hearing, whether or not he should be removed by the Governor after address by the legislative bodies of this State under the terms of Article 5964, Revised Civil Statutes, 1925.

Respectfully submitted, DAN MOODY.
